THE PROGRAMME THEME

"The mediocre teacher tells. The good teacher explains. The superior teacher demonstrates. The great teacher inspires."

— William Arthur Ward

In this technology driven society, the students are well informed of the recent developments in the various field of arts, science, engineering and management. Teaching to the student community with such awareness, is a real challenge for the teachers in the present era. This programme addresses these challenges and throws light on effective teaching methods through modern pedagogical tools and techniques. The programme format will provide scope for an extensive discussion in all these areas and offer informal opportunities to share ideas and network with the participants and professors who are passionate about excellent teaching. The faculty members at the early stage of the teaching career will immensely benefit from this well planned programme and get further motivated in this exciting art of teaching.
