Notice on refund of DDs to unallotted candidates in spot round

Spot Round Allotment results will be published on 17th August 2012. Following the allotment, demand draft will be returned to candidates who will not be allotted a seat in Spot Round. Following procedure will be adopted for the return of drafts to unallotted candidates:

1. Candidates will be permitted to receive the draft from the same RC between 17th August and 21st August 2012 on production of locked choice list and other relevant documents (to establish candidate's identity).
2. There will be instances where the candidate may not be able to collect the DD himself. For such cases, DD will be returned only to either of the parents of the candidate on production of (a) candidate's admit card, (b) locked choice list, (c) signed authorization from the candidate (signature same as that of spot round application and admit card) and (d) parent's identity proof.
3. After 21st August, all the unclaimed Drafts will be submitted to CCB. The CCB will return the draft to candidates.
