DECLARATION REGARDING DUPLICATE CERTIFICATES AND VERIFICATION OF DOCUMENTS

The graduates who have completed their degree programmes from the erstwhile Regional Engineering College, Tiruchirappalli, presently known as the National Institute of Technology, Tiruchirappalli, are hereby informed that matters relating to the issue of duplicate certificates and verification of academic documents shall be processed with the respective affiliating University under which the degree was awarded at the time of their study.

Accordingly, graduates who require duplicate certificates, genuineness/verification of certificates or other academic document-related services are requested to approach and follow the prescribed procedures of the respective University, namely University of Madras or Bharathidasan University, as applicable to their period of study and the programme concerned.

The graduates are requested to directly follow the procedures, submit the prescribed applications and documents, and comply with the requirements stipulated by the respective University for completing such processes.

Wherever the forwarding of an application or any supporting requirement from the Institute is specifically required, the request may be sent to transcript@nitt.edu, along with the duly filled application and all relevant supporting documents. The Institute will process such requests, subject to the available records, procedures and requirements.

Graduates are advised to ascertain the respective affiliating University applicable to their period of study and follow the procedures prescribed by that University for obtaining duplicate certificates or verification of documents.
