- c. asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student;
- d. any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any other student or a fresher;
- e. exploiting the services of a fresher or any other student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students.
- f. any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a fresher or any other student by students;
- g. any act of physical abuse including all variants of it: sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person;
- h. any act or abuse by spoken words, emails, post, public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to fresher or any other student;
- i. any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of a fresher or any other student with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student.

- j. In case of any such instances either directly been contacted by the senior, being a victim or if the student happens to witness any such incident which can be categorically defined under ragging as above as a campus resident he / she should immediately report to the appropriate authority Warden / Convener of Hostels / Chief Warden / Dean Students Welfare/Anti ragging squad for further course of action. Such informants will be protected and shall not be subject to any adverse consequence only for the reason for having reported such incidents.

Fresher's should clearly desist from doing anything with or against their will, even if ordered to by the senior students and that any attempt of ragging shall be promptly reported to above authorities as the case may be.

First year UG students are for the very same reason lodged in separate hostels fenced and the access of seniors are denied to these first year hostels. Any senior student found in those hostel premises for what so ever reason without prior permission shall be subjected to disciplinary action.

The students who are found indulging in such activities shall be punished appropriately after following the procedure and in the manner prescribed herein under

- k. The Anti-Ragging Committee of the institution shall take an appropriate decision, in regard to punishment or otherwise, depending on the facts of each incident of ragging and nature & gravity of the incident of ragging established in the recommendations of the Anti-Ragging Squad.
