Guidelines for Submission of E-Thesis in Shodhganga Repository

National Institute of Technology, Tiruchirappalli, has signed an MoU with the INFLIBNET Centre to participate in the Shodhganga project, which is maintained by the University Grants Commission of India. Shodhganga: a reservoir of Indian theses is a digital repository of theses and dissertations submitted to Indian Higher Education Institutions. The following standards are to be maintained during submission of theses and dissertations under different faculties of the National Institute of Technology Tiruchirappalli.

- An electronic copy of the thesis/dissertation is to be submitted in a Compact Disc (CD) by the respective scholar for Digital Archiving at Central Library, National Institute of Technology Tiruchirappalli, and Shodhganga Repository.
- The files submitted electronically should not be password protected as the exact must be processed before uploading to the Shodhganga Repository.

Please ensure to send the information provided below while sending a submitted thesis and its electronic copy to the Central Library, National Institute of Technology Tiruchirappalli, for uploading and preservation.

The Research Scholar needs to submit a CD with the thesis, which should contain following 2 (two) folders:

- Folder 1 (One) should contain: (A) the complete thesis (exactly the same as the print version) as a single PDF file. (B) As mentioned in (A), the complete thesis is split into multiple PDF files of different thesis sections and chapters (Refer Annexure I for splitting the thesis)
- Folder 2 (Two) should contain: An abstract (not exceeding 2048 characters).

In addition to the PDF document, researchers are advised to submit supporting materials such as Audio files, Video files, Statistical Results, etc. However, it is suggested to use a proper open format while submitting such content. (e.g. MP3 for audio files, MPEG4 for Video files).

Research scholars are requested to submit the forms: 10C - Form T1* - PhD Thesis Submission for Shodhganga Repository, 10D - Form T2 - Temporary Withhold of Publication (if required), and Plagiarism Verification Form.
